Clear division of tasks for combined success

Agencies' expertise in creating marketing and branding strategies for their customers. We expertise in making the exhibit become reality. Thus only enriching the agency's qualifications instead of competing with them, we see ourselves as a reliable supporting partner.

70% of our agency partners have an office dog. We have rubber ducks instead.

Efficiency through experience

Deadlines are met. Period.

To meet deadlines is our highest priority: due to our tireless commitment - especially in the crucial phase during the final days before an event - we are proud to look back on a hundred percent success rate with fullest client satisfaction.

Without detour on the road to success

We know that quick and direct communication leads to shared success: our relentless commitment is ensured, especially when things get tough.*

Concept

We typically support you on technical issues already in the concept phase to ensure the feasibility and maximal effect of the exhibit.

Implementation

Good planning, quick development, transparent costs. If necessary, we can also assist you in the design process.

Adjustments

Change requests shortly before (or after) the deadline? We are well prepared for this.

Completion

According exactly to your specifications and to the demands of your clients, we supply only the best software. Guaranteed.

Support

No general support contracts: After the implementation, we will still continue to support our exhibits, but without standing costs for you.

We never let you down. In times of need, we are even prepared to install network cables.
